

150 Years of the Mayan-Aztec Calendar (1904-2054)

NOT FOR COMMERCIAL USE! This means you cannot use this information to make money in ANY WAY. This is for PERSONAL use only. If you don't know the difference, contact me with what you want to use it for.

I tried to keep each day's information to one line, but sometimes that wasn't possible.

The format is thus:

Friday, March 23, 2007 12 19.14.3.0 13 Cumhu (Dark God)-Titi (Shrinking) 10 Ahau (Lord)-Xochitl (Flower) south Pilzintecutli (sun god) burner
Day, Date Long Count Mayan Haab (translation)-Aztec Xihpohualli (translation) Mayan Tzolkin (translation)-Aztec Tonalpohualli (translation) direction Lord of the Night (translation) energy type

A line of red text signifies a new Tzolkin/Tonalpohualli (1 Imix/Cipactli) cycle

A line of blue text signifies a new Haab/Xiuhpohualli (0 Pop/Izcalli) and the start of a new year
